

Thanksgiving dinner!!

This is right now.....

29. November 2015

Helping cooking!! 😊😊

Snow and foggy walks.....

All is ok. It was very difficult for him after you two left..... It was very hard on him to see you and her after only a short time. He was very upset for a few days. Things are calm now but that's not easy for a dog like him to understand.

We will go back to the vet this week to do a follow up check on his ears and also update all shots that may be needed.

Best wishes, Amanda & Chollo
